Today, corporations, non-profits, and individuals are struggling to market themselves, stay connected, and get energized. Networking is a proven low cost way to do it with high ROI. What was once a nice to have skill — is now a need to have skill. Business owners, salespeople, managers, entrepreneurs, and young employees see the need, but wonder where to begin.

Give us 3 hours of your time and we'll show you how! We'll share the secrets of effective networking to help you build your own professional and personal network.

This highly interactive workshop teaches how to:

- ◆ Build a networking strategy
- ◆ Make small talk in every setting
- ◆ Overcome shyness
- ◆ Remember names easily
- ◆ Dress appropriately for business events
- ◆ Develop your own "15 second commercial"
- ◆ Maximize use of your business cards
- ◆ Increase contacts and build your business
